

7659. THAISS

1. Michael¹ Thaiß was an inhabitant of Steinenbach in the parish of Täferrot. He died in 1637, recorded between 11 January and 11 July without an exact date,^[1] but the event must have occurred before the third Sunday after Trinity [28 June], when he is named as deceased in the marriage record of his daughter Christina. The state administration of Steinenbach was divided, with fees held at different times by the county of Limpurg (1414) and the imperial city of Gmünd (1804).^[2] Other estates seem to have been held of the monastery of Lorch, of which Württemberg held the overlordship (1607).^[3] After 1713 the Limpurg estates in Steinenbach fell to the county of Limpurg-Sontheim-Gaildorf, and they were incorporated into the kingdom of Württemberg in 1806.^[4]
